

California Crime and Intelligence Analysts Association

2023 ANALYST OF THE YEAR

To Be Presented at the

2023 CCIAA TRAINING CONFERENCE

(Hosted by the San Diego Crime and Intelligence Analysts Association)

Nominations for the 2023 California Crime and Intelligence Analysts Association (CCIAA) Analyst of the Year are now being accepted. This is an opportunity to recognize excellence in the field of Crime and Intelligence Analysis. The 2023 Analyst of the Year award shall be granted to a CCIAA member in good standing at the time of the award. The nominee shall have completed outstanding analytical work in the field of Crime and Intelligence Analysis that was a noteworthy contribution to a significant criminal investigation, crime trend/series, public safety concern, or evolving criminal concerns.

Submission Deadline: August 1, 2023

RECOGNITION GIVEN

The recipient will be honored at the 2023 CCIAA Training Conference Awards Lunch. The recipient will receive a plaque commemorating their achievement and a registration waiver to the 2024 CCIAA Training Conference.

AWARD CRITERIA

Nominees must be current members of one of the CCIAA regional associations.

Nominees must be currently working for a national, federal, state, or local criminal justice agency. The analytical work must have been completed between July 1, 2022 – June 30, 2023.

EVALUATION PROCESS

Each submission will be evaluated by members of the 2023 CCIAA Board for the following:

- Impact made to the nominee's law enforcement agency
- Impact made to the community in which the nominee services
- Accessibility of work product
- Uniqueness in presentation of the analytical work
- Innovative and creative use of resources to conduct the analysis
