

FREE TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

Education Seminar: Data Analysis, Social Media, Predictive Policing and Public Records Investigations.

The California Crime & Intelligence Analysts' Association will be co-hosting a 6-hour training seminar with Lexis Nexis. For your convenience this training is being offered in three different locations throughout California. Lexis Nexis will provide these complimentary seminars, FREE of charge to all current employed LAW ENFORCEMENT personnel and CCIAA general members!!! This class will discuss implementation of data analytics within your department. It is highly recommended that all levels in your organization attend this training: Crime Analysts, Detectives, Supervisors and Executive Staff.

DISCUSSION TOPICS INCLUDE:

The seminar will cover Data Analysis including Predictive Policing topics, discuss the power of Public Records in Investigations as well as Social Media Analysis (tips and tricks/concerns/updates). Presented by known speakers in the field of L.E. such as; Sam Palmer, Annie Mitchell and Kenneth Mekeel. These three powerful speakers will definitely not bore or disappoint you! This seminar is by no means a "Lexis Nexis" demo or vendor presentation!!! Lexis Nexis is merely facilitating the presentation. I highly encourage you to share this with members of your agency especially Analysts, Detectives and Supervisors. The information covered in this seminar will no doubt prove to be informative and valuable to you. Did we mention Lexis Nexis will be providing lunch?!?!
